

Trust Officer's & Advisers

As more and more seniors are choosing to remain in their own homes it is important to understand the reality of in-home care assistance. Home Companions Senior Care can serve as your eyes and ears in your client's homes.

How we can help you...

As a preferred provider of in-home care services, Home Companions Senior Care bears the burden of ensuring your clients' needs are met in their own homes. We serve as the first point of contact when issues arise, and see to it that your client's needs are met quickly and accurately. You will have the ability to be involved as little or as much as you feel necessary in your client's day-to-day affairs.

As a family-owned and locally-managed business, we have the flexibility to work with the needs of our clients and their representatives. We offer simplified billing schedules to make it easier on you. We have an RN case manager on our staff, available 24/7. We want to make your lives easier and give you peace of mind.

How we can help your clients...

Older adults account for the majority of in-home injuries requiring hospital care. By being at home with the client during daily activities, Home Companions Senior Care can help significantly reduce the chance of injury so your clients can enjoy safe everyday living .
